

Veterans Benefits Assistance Program

The Veterans Benefits Assistance Program provides Providence Place residents assistance to determine eligibility to receive the Aid and Attendance (A&A) Pension available through the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. The program also provides assistance throughout the entire application process.

Who is eligible?

The Aid and Attendance Pension provides benefits for veterans and surviving spouses who require the regular attendance to perform personal functions required in everyday living either in a personal care or assisted living community or in their own home.

Monthly benefit

The amount awarded is determined by an individual's assets, income and medical expenses. The maximum benefit amounts are:

up to $1,788
per month for the veteran

up to $1,149
per month for a surviving spouse

up to $2,120
per month for the veteran
and his/her spouse
