

Focus on Wellness: Your New Journey

A “new normal” – we have heard this phrase repeatedly over the last few months to describe the unusual and unprecedented time. Living through this has brought the ability to create new anxieties. And for some, just simply hearing the phrase “a new normal” may even trigger heavy emotion.

What we know to be certain is that changes occur. Changes that are happening in our world now are at a pace that may bring discomfort and struggle. Look at what is different in our lives since the beginning of March – all of our lives have changed how we function day-to-day, how we connect with others, and even how we worship.

Would you be surprised to know that change is part of life’s DNA? All living things must change.

To walk with this change in a healthy way, I encourage you to quiet the distractions around you. Take time to find ways you can have quiet, invite peace and focus on your inner voice that surrounds your purpose.

What does it mean to be made new through change? Regardless of what life’s changes bring, you have the power to enrich your life. Finding a new routine, or someone who can influence you positively, can bring a new breath of vibrancy and refreshment. Maybe it is a new exercise routine, a new focus on better nutrition or it may even be a friendly competition between you and a companion.

It is easy to sit around and talk about the good ole days, especially when the present days seem bleak with little hope of returning to the former.

If you are to have any hope of resetting your path to a glorious future, self-examination is required with careful and earnest consideration of being open to change. Some aspects of your life may require a radical transformation. Let us stop, reflect, and adjust. Your willingness to embrace change can and will affect what you think, how you feel, and what you do. Change comes with renewal of a living hope. Foundational principles of this new living hope comes simply: change is needed, change will take place, and thankfully change can bring a renewed living hope.

A Note from the Executive Director

Dear Residents and Families,

According to the Mayo clinic, “everyone benefits from regular exercise, regardless of age, sex, or physical ability.” There are also studies that show making time for exercise provides some serious mental health benefits. Some benefits include:

- 1) Reducing stress
- 2) Boost happy chemicals
- 3) Improve self-confidence
- 4) Enjoy the great outdoors
- 5) Prevent cognitive decline
- 6) Alleviate anxiety
- 7) Boost Brainpower
- 8) Sharpen memory
- 9) Help control addiction
- 10) Increase relaxation
- 11) Get more done
- 12) Tap into creativity
- 13) Inspire others

During these challenging times, it is remarkable to see the number of residents who are remaining physically active. Many residents are walking in the hallways during inclement weather or high pollen counts. Many others are making it a point to get fresh air and enjoy our beautiful walking trail. Keep up the great job and remain active!
